Søren Clausen discussed the term in regard to China in his paper, Early Modern China A Preliminary Postmortem. For Clausen, the search for a terminology describing an early modern China emerged from the urge to incorporate China into a world history, whose importance he stresses in his introductory sentence: A world that is increasingly becoming one world needs a world history . What he also did was to recap the influence other historians had on the discussion during the 1980s and 90s, which are partially also addressed in the paper. 12 pp. Englisch.
